IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY

CIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

WRIT PETITION NO. 2241 OF 2006

Satishkumar B. Mishra... ....Petitioner.

Versus

Vice Chancellor,
University of Pune..... ... Respondent.

Mr. S.B.Mishra, Petitioner present in person.

None for the Respondent.

CORAM : V.G. PALSHIKAR, and V.R.KINGAONKAR, JJ.

DATED : 3RD APRIL, 2006.

P.C.:

By this petition, the Petitioner has made the following prayers :

(a) For declaration of result of the petitioner for the exam. which he has appeared in December, 1995.

(b) For to accept the form for remaining papers without late for the exam. to be appeared in May, 1996.

(c) To correct the mark sheets where Respondent has declared petitioner as failed in I/II semester.

(d) To award LL.M. Post Graduate Degree quoting the subjects which the petitioner has passed in optional subjects.

(e) Damages as determined by Hon'ble Court for the mischief/deficiency in service caused by Respondent's official.

(f) Cost of the petition as determined by Honourable Court.

2. From the above prayers it will be seen that the Petitioner is taking additional optional subjects for his LL.M. and has been appearing for his examination for the last 10 years. In the year 1997 by an interim order, this Court allowed the Petitioner to appear for additional optional papers of 3rd and 4th semesters of LL.M. course. After this, since the Petitioner appeared for examination, the result of the said examination was already declared and given to the petitioner. According to the University, there is no provision to appear for additional optional papers of LL.M. examination after passing LL.M. course and therefore the request of the petitioner for passing any additional optional subject was rejected. There is no error of law in such a finding recorded by the University. The Petitioner, however, may pursue fresh LL.M. Degree in other subject not already covered by LL.M. secured by him. The petition is, accordingly, dismissed.
